Cyberinfrastructure for Intelligent Water Supply
Visualization Challenge Scoring Rubric

Item	Standard	Points Available	Points Awarded
Effective communication of residential water use information (50%)
1	Submission clearly communicates useful information/insights about residential water use in a way that is easy to understand for the intended audience	35
2	Results are correct	15
Reproducibility/reusability of code and/or methods (25%)
3	Submission is uploaded to a public GitHub repository	10
4	Code files or other submission files are commented and documented to make them more reusable	5
5	Methods employed by the code or submitted files are clearly articulated	5
6	Submitted code or other files are clean and well structured	5
Creativity and originality of visualization and presentation (25%)
7	The visualization and presentation are original and unique	10
8	Submission shows creativity in approach and in results	5
9	Final presentation to judges effectively communicates results	10
Total:		100	